The Time Is Now!

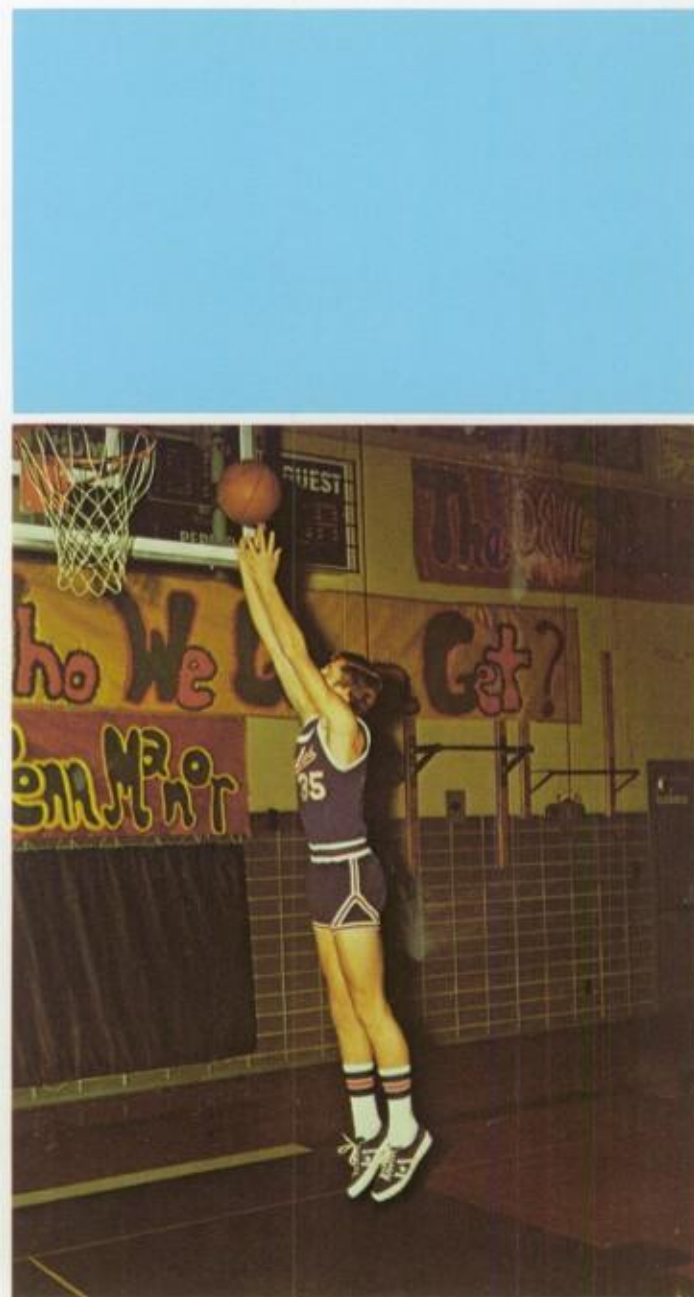

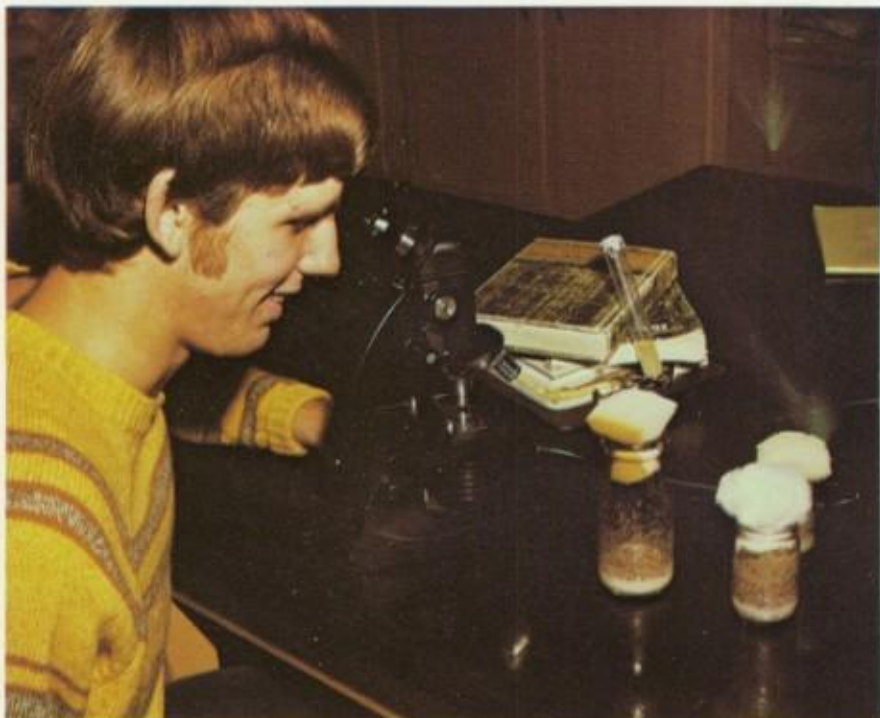

KO-KA-LE-KO '72

Cocalico High School
Denver, Pa.

These memorable years,

Henry David Thoreau said, "Time is but a stream to go a-fishing in." Each of us has to take something from the stream we know as life. For some of us it is but a minute of joy; for others it is a life devoted to others. How each of us uses his life can be determined by a series of choices made at various times as we are growing to maturity. This is the only way we can use time.

In keeping with the theme of time, the staff has tried to capture events of the school year with pictures taken by Mr. Amos Martin, Mr. Gregory Heisey and members of the Photography Club. Time plays a major part throughout the year. We say if only we could have another day we could finish the assignment on time, if only we would have had a few more minutes we could have won the game.

The 1972 KO-KA-LE-KO wishes to express our appreciation to Mr. Lutz who is in his last year of teaching. Through the years he has amused his students and given them that little extra in their knowledge of mathematics. We are grateful for the time he has devoted to education and wish him many contented retirement years.

As editor-in-chief, I wish to extend many thanks to Nancy Harting, Sue Kramer, Karen Sweigart, and Cindy Fasnacht the editors in charge of the People, Sports, Activities, and Typing sections respectively, to Dawn Mohler, business manager, to Mr. Brensinger for his assistance in organizing and putting this yearbook into print. As deadlines approached these people, along with other seniors and underclassmen on the staff, spent many after-school hours assembling the 1972 KO-KA-LE-KO.
